Dan,

Rolling Stone contributing writer Steven Hsieh (pronounced "SHAY") will be here at the Regional Office on Monday, March 4, at 1 p.m., to interview you regarding citizen concerns at West Lake. I've urged him to please send us any questions, particularly those that might require some level of researching or file digging, in advance. He will be traveling alone—no photographer. I'll meet him at the guards' desk and will have a small room reserved for us.

Here's a link that takes you to some samples of his recent reporting:
